RIVERSIDE CLUB SUNDAY

Wimbledon, June 25—William T. Til-ten of Philadelphia, who today defeat-id Charles S. Garland of Pittsburgh in the tennis singles tournament for the British championship will face the Japanese expert, Zenzo Shimidzu, in the final round tomorrow. The winner will fight it out with Gerald L. Patterson of Australia, in the challenge cound for the title. Shimidzu won to-day from Theodore Mavrogordato, of the English Davis cup team, who yesterday successfully disposed of R. Norris Williams, 2nd, of Boston. In the top half of the doubles Wm. M. Johnson of California and Tilden will meet Garland and Williams in the semi-finals. In the lower half of this contests Kings Colt and Parke will meet the hais. In the lower half of this contest Kings Colt and Parke will meet the South Africans Dodd and Blackbeard, who today most creditably won from the Frenchmen Brugnonan and Decuup much to the disappointment of about five hundred fans and the management of the Sterling team. Manager McIntire who have been very anxious to play the Sterling team did not show sportsmanship enough to call the Sterling manager on the phone and give him a chance to get another team to substitute for the Pastime A. An Important Situation

Tight money is the principal handicap in business today. It is the effect of inflation and freight congestion. It is largely responsible for the very low bond prices. Some bankers believe that the movement of crops in the fall may cause even higher money rates. All agree, however, that bonds offer the best investment opportunities and that those who buy good mortgage bonds now will not be making a mistake.

turned the tables on Taftville on the good for a hat from a Danlelson men's home grounds here Sunday, sending the store.

The score: visitors back home runless, the scere of the game being 11 to 0. Danielson took revenge for the 10th inning beating it received a fortnight ago at the hands of the losers, in the first, third and eighth landings, during which sessions all the scoring was done. coring was done.

In the very first stanza five counters Kent of Medical and Joe LaBelle followed with a smash 1 vegoe: and Joe Landie followed with a smiss-ing hit to right, which being misjudged by Descelles, went for a home run, net-ting twe counters. Arthur and Coull-lard were walked in their turn and then Adams rapped to right scoring Arthur. Descelles dropped one from the bat of Kent and Coullard scored, Adams go-Kent and Coulliard scored, Adams going to third. A minute later he stole Melrose club of Taftville Saturday in a Corcoran and Jack Murphy fanned, ending their hopes. In the ninth, also, Blair came close to scoring when he raced homeward when Kent dropped one from the bat of Jimmy Murphy. But Kent heaved the pull to the plate, getting it there in the nick of time to make the out and end the game.

Corcoran pitched for the losers and while he had four errors behind him, one contributed by himself, he was unsteady passing four and hitting Kent. He fanned but five, and allowed eight hits. Arithur hurled a fine brand of ball for the home club, fanning nine, passing one and giving but five scattered hits. Simcox and Germain got two apieces of these, the latter whaling for a double and a the latter whaling for a double and a single. Blair and Mills played good ball of not showing it.

IN LOOSELY PLAYED GAME Capt. Ellicit with a single and a dou-ble; Adams with two singles and Neal (Special to The Bulletin.) with a like batting record, topped the Danlelson, June 28.—Connecticut Mills hitters on the winning team, but Joe LaBelle made the longest clout, a homer
